

KALAMAZOO BASKETBALL LEAGUE - Two of the newest members of the GKSML (Greater Kalamazoo Strat-O-Matic Baseball League) belong to the Kalamazoo Basketball League in the form of Jeff Kik and Bruce Mulder. Mulder made his debut in the six-team basketball league an instant success by winning the regular-season championship and then capturing the playoffs as well...the KBL was a draft league that played a 30-game schedule...birth pangs of the KBL were heard when many of the current members were attending Grand Valley State College near Grand Rapids. The league operated for three years and then, after a one-year layoff during which many of the members relocated in the Kalamazoo area, the dice once again were rolling... Mulder's team--the Montana Moose--was led by MVP Moses Malone, with Paul Westphal, Truck Robinson and Dennis Johnson playing strong supporting roles...other members included: Pat Stemas (Detroit Strohs), Kik, who had won the league three straight years (Watt's Happening), Rick Kononchuk (Utah Leapers), Dave Knox (No. 2) and Dave Juts (Little Detroit).

Standings and playoff results are found on the back page:

S-O-M league, replay scene

[continued from page 23]

Kalamazoo, MI Basketball

Montana Moose	20-10
Detroit Strohs	17-13
Watt's Happening	15-15
Utah Leapers	15-15
No. 2	14-16
Little Detroit	9-21

Playoffs

No. 2 88	Detroit 115	Utah 117
Detroit 110	Utah 95	Watt's 104

Championship:

Montana 117
Detroit 106
